

There are plans for several other pits in this book that we will be adding to this page. Also, we recently got a copy of the Sunset BBQ Book from 1945 that has lots of additional plans. Look for some of those here as well.

You can click on all the images on the following pages for a larger view.

For a glimpse of a real homebuilt brick BBQ pit check out Dave Lineback's pit, nicknamed Wilber D. Hog

A brick pit with a vertical cooking chamber and a wood storage rack.

A pit similar to the one above, except it is built from concrete blocks and without the storage rack.
